

Deposit a payment advice digitally

How to deposit a payment advice via our website and the online bank

- 1 Log in at swedbank.se/kontoregister (in Swedish). Click on "Lös in din avi".
- 2 If you have an online bank account with us, select Other services. If not, you will see the option Payment advices in the menu once you have logged in.
- 3 If you do not have internetbank in Swedbank/sparbank, you need to log in and agree to the terms of use for the bank's Serviceportal. Note: This does not make you a customer of ours.
- 4 Select Deposit a payment advice.
- 5 State the ten-digit IDK number found on the payment advice in the bottom right-hand corner. Then click on Continue.
- 6 Select the account for the deposit in the drop-down menu or write the account number of another bank.
- 7 Approve the deposit.
- 8 Done! The money will arrive in the selected account by the next banking day at the latest. Save your payment advice until you see that the deposit has come in to your account.

Who can deposit a payment advice digitally?

As a private individual, you can deposit a payment advice from Swedbank digitally. The following is required for the payment advice recipient:

- 1 You are a private individual who is over 18.
- 2 If you are a customer at Swedbank or a savings bank, you need to possess a BankID or Mobile BankID (or a security token from Swedbank or a savings bank). If you are not a customer you need a Mobile BankID.
- 3 Your Swedish personal ID number must be printed on the payment advice that you received by post.

You do not need to be a Swedbank customer, and you do not automatically become a customer when you deposit the payment advice. You can deposit a payment advice digitally at no charge.
