2. General provisions

The Principles describe how Markaryds Sparbank Processes Personal Data. Specific details and information on the Processing of Personal Data may also be described in agreements, on websites and in other documents related to the Services.

Markaryds Sparbank ensures, within the framework of Data Protection Legislation, the confidentiality of Personal Data and has implemented appropriate technical and organisational measures to safeguard Personal Data from unauthorized access, unlawful disclosure, accidental loss, modification, destruction or any other unlawful Processing.

Markaryds Sparbank may use approved Data Processors for Processing Personal Data. In such cases, Markaryds Sparbank takes necessary steps to ensure that Data Processors Process Personal Data under documented instructions of Markaryds Sparbank, in accordance with the required and adequate security measures and otherwise in compliance with Data Protection Legislation and Regulatory Legislation.

3. Markaryds Sparbanks Processing of Personal Data

3.1 Collection of Personal Data and categories of data subjects

Personal Data may be collected from the Client directly, from the Client's use of the Services and from external sources such as public and private registers or other providers of databases. Markaryds Sparbank may also record telephone calls, images and/or audio, save e-mail communication or otherwise document the Client's interaction and communication with Markaryds Sparbank.

Markaryds Sparbank primarily collects from and Processes Personal Data about natural persons whom have entered into or wishes to enter into an agreement with Markaryds Sparbank, such as customers, debtors or pledgees. Markaryds Sparbank also collects and Processes Personal Data from prospect customers, payers, trustees, administrators, agents, legal representatives, corporate representatives, signatories, shareholders, stakeholders, contact persons, board members, beneficial owners and visitors of Markaryds Sparbanks branches.

To be able to provide the Services, Markaryds Sparbank may in some cases Process special categories of Personal Data. Markaryds Sparbank may ask for the Client's consent when Processing special categories of Personal Data, for example, when information is required for the Services related to health insurance products or membership loans. Markaryds Sparbank may also Process special categories of Personal Data if required for exercise of a legal claim, if Markaryds Sparbank is required by a legal obligation or a collective bargaining agreement.

4. Legal basis and purposes

4.1 Performance of agreements

The main purpose of Markaryds Sparbank Processing the Client's Personal Data is to document, execute and administer agreements with the Client.

Examples of purposes for Processing are:

- To take steps at the request of the Client prior to entering into an agreement, as well as to conclude, execute and terminate an agreement.
- To execute national and international transactions via credit institutions and payment systems.
- For managing Client relations and administrating access to the Services.
- To carry out internal credit- and risk assessments in order to determine on what terms and which Services can be offered.
- To verify a commercial transaction or other business communication. Markaryds Sparbank may record telephone calls for this purpose.
- To authorize and control access to the Services.
- To identify the Client when accessing the Services.

4.2 Legal obligations

In order for Markaryds Sparbank to be able to comply with its legal obligations, Markaryds Sparbank Processes Personal Data in accordance with Regulatory Legislation and Data Protection Legislation. Examples of purposes for Processing are:

- To check and verify the Client's identity and to keep Personal Data updated and correct by verifying and enriching data through external and internal registers (KYC).
- To prevent, discover, investigate and report potential money laundering and terrorist financing.
- To carry out credit- and other risk assessments when providing credits and other financial services, risk hedging and capital requirements for Markaryds Sparbank.
- To comply with rules and regulations relating to accounting and risk management.
- To comply with rules and regulations relating to insurance, actuary and statistic purposes.

4.3 Legitimate interest

Markaryds Sparbank Processes the Client's Personal Data for Markaryds Sparbanks legitimate interest. Markaryds Sparbank has considered this Processing to be necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interest pursued by Markaryds Sparbank, which Markaryds Sparbank have considered outweighing the Client's interest of protection of the Personal Data. Examples of purposes for Processing are:

- To provide additional Services, personalized offers and direct marketing.
- To develop, examine and improve Markaryds Sparbanks business, the Services and the Client's user experience by performing surveys, analyses and statistics. Markaryds Sparbank may record telephone calls for this purpose.
- To organize competitions and campaigns.

- To protect the interests of the Client and/or Markaryds Sparbank and Markaryds Sparbanks employees, including security measures.
- To communicate with corporate representatives and to provide Services within the scope of the contractual relationship with the corporate customer.
- To prevent, limit and investigate any misuse or unlawful use or disturbance of the Services.
- To ensure adequate provisions of the Services, the safety of information within the Services, as well as to improve, develop and maintain applications, technical systems and IT-infrastructure, including testing Markaryds Sparbanks digital environment.
- To establish, exercise and defend legal claims and to handle complaints.

4.4 Consent

Markaryds Sparbank will in some cases ask for the Client's consent to Process Personal Data. Before giving consent, the Client will be presented with information on the Processing. Consent can always be withdrawn, and the Client will be informed of any consequences of such withdrawal.

5. Profiling and automated decision-making

Profiling refers to the automatic Processing of Personal Data used to assess certain personal characteristics of the Client in particular to analyse or predict, for example, the economic situation, personal preferences, interests and place of residence of such individual. Profiling is for example used to analyse Client advice, marketing purposes, system development and for measures preventing money laundering and financing of terrorism, as well as for automated decision-making such as credit assessments, risk management and transaction monitoring to counter fraud.

Markaryds Sparbank may collect and automatically process data from external and internal sources for the purpose of creating a Client profile and thereby provide the Client with suitable recommendations and offers. Internal data points are for example information about the Clients' product holdings and the Clients' usage of the Services.

Markaryds Sparbank may also collect statistical data, such as typical behaviour and lifestyle patterns based on demographic household data. This statistical data is used for creating segments and profiles which, combined with Markaryds Sparbanks internal data, is processed for the purpose of analytics and for providing suitable offers to the Client.

Markaryds Sparbank may Process Personal Data utilizing machine learning for the purpose of providing relevant personalized offers of the Services based upon how the Client, or other similar Clients, navigates in the digital environment of Markaryds Sparbank and interacts with our offers.

6. Cookies

When the Client visits Markaryds Sparbanks websites, cookies are used by Markaryds Sparbank. The cookies used are listed in Markaryds Sparbanks cookie policy available on Markaryds Sparbanks website mararydssparbank.se/cookies.

7. Camera surveillance
